HAPPENINGS ABOUT CITY TOLD IN BRIEF

A meeting of Canton of Odd Fellows will be held at 7:30 o'clock at Odd Fellows' Hall.

Mr. Jack Dow, Jr., of 1601 King street is in the Alexandria Hospital very ill with the typhoid fever.

Mrs. Effie L. Baggett has gone to El Paso, Texas, where she will spend the winter with friends, and will also visit in Southern California.

Mr. Fred Lindsay Cook and Mrs. Cook of Waynesboro and Staunton, Va., are guests of Mrs. Charles T. Lindsay at 113 South Columbus street.

As heretofore stated in the Gazette, Andrew Jackson Lodge of Masons, tonight at 8 o'clock will give a novelty eight program in the Elk's Hall in honor of the members of Martha Washington Chapter No. 42, Eastern Star.

A supper will be given from 6:30 o'clock until 9 o'clock this evening in the lecture room of Trinity M. E. Church in the honor of the Dend-nough Athletic Club by the Helping Hand Society of that church.

Eight more automobile owners were cited to appear in the police court today for parking their cars for more than thirty minutes at the head of King street opposite the carnival grounds. Most of those cited forfeited $2 collateral and in the cases of the others a fine of $2 each was imposed.

The local recruiting station at 624 King Street received telegraphic instructions to accept colored applicants for the famous tenth cavalry, who are especially qualified. Original enlistments cannot be made by those who have not completed eighth grammar grade. Re-enlistment can be made by those who received not less than "very good" on last discharge. This is an exceptional opportunity for colored men. It has been years since there has been a vacancy in this regiment.

Must Give Age

"Twenty One Plus." Won't Go Even if Applicant is Around 75
Women in Virginia cannot register as "twenty-one plus," according to an opinion handed down yesterday by Attorney-General John R. Saunders in regard to the status of the fair sex in filling up for the ballot box. Nay, not even if "reported" to be around 75, the Attorney-General rules.

Of course, it is to be expected that some belle of remote vintage would hesitate between duty to their State and baring the dearest secret of their lives. But it certainly caused a severe shock when the Attorney-General was asked to rule on the case of a woman residing in Bedford who refused to give her age (reported to be around three-quarters of a century) and who contested the ruling of the registrar that unless she did so she was ineligible.

REMOVAL NOTICE

The members of Alexandria Council No. 5, Order Fraternal Americans, are hereby given notice of the removal of said Council from 1, O. O. Hall to Pythian Hall, 319 Commerce street, also that the night of meeting has been changed to the first and third Friday evenings instead of Thursday as heretofore. All members are urged to be present at Pythian Hall, tomorrow (Friday) evening, October 1st, at 7:30 o'clock.

NOTICE

James W. Jackson Council No. 55, O. U. A. M., will give a box party on Wednesday, September 29, for benefit of degree team. All come, come, come all.

Probe Abe's Death

Coroner's Jury Says Chas. Brown Responsible For Shooting

A coroner's jury, which met last night at Wheatley's funeral chapel to investigate the shooting of John Abe, colored, which occurred Tuesday night, and who died from his wounds yesterday afternoon at the Alexandria Hospital, gave a verdict that to the best of its knowledge, the death of Abe was caused by a gunshot wound inflicted by Charles Brown, colored. The testimony of three witnesses was heard. The shooting took place in a camp car in the western end of the city. Brown has not been captured.

The jury was composed of T. A. Fisher, foreman; Harry E. Hinken, James Bailey, Silas Devers, Clarence W. Dettor and George W. Bontz, Jr.

The Victory Medal

Call at 624 King Street Tomorrow Evening for Emblem

There are over 4,500,000 American soldiers, sailors and marines and members of the Army Nurse Corps who are entitled to receive the Victory Medal, tribute of a grateful nation to all who aided in crushing German ambition to dominate the world. During the spring of 1918, while hostilities were still at their height the different allied and associated nations agreed to adopt a medal for all to commemorate the great war. An interallied commission met in Paris after the armistice, and it was decided to have an identical ribbon and allow each country to design its own medal. The ribbon is a double rainbow, having the red in the center and with a white thread on each edge. It symbolizes the dawn of a new era of calm after the storm.

The medal as adopted by the commission is to be bronze 1.4 inches in diameter and suspended from the ribbon by a ring. On one side is a winged Victory standing full length and full face, on the reverse side in the inscription, "The Great War for Civilization," and the names of the allied or associated Nations. A system of clasps was adopted for the medal to designate the operations in which the applicant participated.

Apply this week to the Army Recruiting Station, 624 King street between the hours of 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. and Friday evening from 7 to 8 p. m. After this week all applicants will have to apply to Richmond office as stated above for Victory Medal. Call at once and make application and save time.

Other members of the American mission also were present, as were representatives of a number of other countries. American and English newspapermen and German officials and scientists.

President Ebert, who spoke at the function, after congratulating the German makers of the plant on their skill and ingenuity, sent broadcast a message opening the new service.

The towers and antennae which serve America, just completed, have a sending radius of 12,000 miles and a capacity of 75 words a minute.

IN MEMORIAM

MAUPIN—In loving memory of Melville H. Maupin, who passed away one year ago today, September 30, 1919.

What is home without a mother?
All things the world may send,
When we lost our mother
We lost our dearest friend.

She wore a crown of patience
Though the years she struggled on,
Those hands that rest forever
Were the hands that made our home.

I often sit and think of you
When I am all alone,
For memory is the only friend
That grief can call its own.

The golden gates were open,
A gentle voice said come,
And with farewell unspoken
She calmly entered home.

By her sons, Edward and William Maupin.

TWO BALL PLAYERS ADMIT BRIBERY

Claude Williams and Oscar Felsch Confess Guilt To 'Throw Game'

INDICT TWO GAMBLERS

Pitcher Gave Away Three Games Got Only $5,000 of $20,000 Promised—Says He Was Doubled Crossed

Chicago, Sept. 30.—Confessions from Claude Williams and Oscar Felsch admitting they were bribed to "throw" last year's world series were made public today.

At the same time the grand jury investigating the baseball scandal took its first action against gamblers who are said to have engineered the deal by indicting two men whose identity was only partly revealed.

"Brown" and "Sullivan" were the names under which true bills were voted against the alleged gamblers, and both were said to be from Boston or New York. Later, however, it came out that the jury believed these names to be mythical and used only by the men when they discussed the series "throwing" with the ball players.

Possibility that they are two men whose names already have been brought before the jury and who are nationally known, was expressed by officials in the State's Attorney's office.

The statement by Williams and the newspaper reports of Felsch's confession tallied with those made yesterday by Eddie Cicotte and Joe Jackson. They revealed that last year's world series was settled in a tiny room in a small South Side hotel.

In this room, occupied by Eddie Cicotte, once the American League's leading pitcher, the deal was made, which "threw" the world series, wrecked a world championship team and brought some of the greatest idols in baseball to disgrace.

According to the sworn statement made by Claude Williams, who lost three of the world series games, he and Chick Gandil, Buck Weaver, Eddie Cicotte, who lost two games, and Happy Felsch, whose error helped lose one game, met here to hatched "Brown" and "Sullivan" to lose the games.

"After we had agreed that we were willing to 'throw' the series," Williams said, "we went out one at a time and made our bargains with Brown and Sullivan."

Williams said he received $10,000 and that he gave $5,000 to Jackson, a statement which tallies with the confession made by Jackson yesterday. Each were supposed to get $20,000 he said.

Felsch, according to reports of his confession, said he received $5,000 which he found in his locker at the clubhouse, but that he never had a chance to really help lost the series.

His one glaring error of the series—when he dropped a fly ball—was an accident and he was warned afterwards by the other players not to be so awkward in making his misplays.

GREY TELLS ENGLISH TO QUIT IRELAND

Former Ambassador to U. S. Offers Solution For Problem

WANT BRITISH OUT

Opposed Separation, But Would Give Irish Full Freedom, Favors Withdrawal From Erin in Two Years.

London, Sept. 30.—Viscount Grey of Faldoen, came forward today with an important suggestion for the solution of the Irish problem. It is a virtually a generous form of home rule, involving three cardinal points.

Definite announcement that Great Britain and Ireland must have a single foreign policy and a common army and navy. Separation of these matters could not be tolerated any more than the North could stand the separation of the South in the United States, says Lord Grey.

Irishmen must be as free as peoples of the great self-governing dominions and settle for themselves how their country shall be governed.

The British Government should continue to perform the function of government in Ireland for a period not to exceed two years and withdraw at the end of that period or sooner, if Ireland is ready.

The text of Viscount Grey's message, which was published in the Westminster Gazette, follows:

"Ireland has never been such a reproach and discredit to British statesmanship as it is today. It has been unable to punish or prevent the constant murder of those who serve it. In parts of Ireland its authority apparently has ceased and been superseded by Sinn Fein courts, from which alone can any redress be obtained for ordinary crime or wrongdoing; and some, if not all, of the Unionists majority in nationalist Ireland, hopeless of protection from the British Government, is now advocating dominion home rule or looking to an agreement with Sinn Fein."

"The British administration, in fact exhibits the helplessness of an extremely feeble government, while securing all the odium of one that rules by force. Ireland is more disconcerted than ever and there is no prospect of settlement or improvement."

"The present Home Rule bill will before Parliament is not solution. Apparently no one wants the bill; the Irishmen will refuse to put it into execution."

"We must, therefore, look to some other policy for relief. Nothing that is in the nature of a bargain between the British Government and one part of Ireland has any chance of success; if Sinn Fein accepts it Ulster will denounce it. If Ulster accepts it Sinn Fein will reject it."

Viscount Grey then gives his three cardinal points for a solution of the problem.

Cork, Sept. 30.—The smoking of the town of Malin, County Cork, during last night followed promptly on the Sinn Fein coup of yesterday, in which the military barracks were raided and a sergeant killed. Not the "Black and Tans" but the Seventeenth Lancers are said to have exacted the reprisals.

They burned the town hall and some forty buildings, including the creamery and the principal shops.

There was much promiscuous shooting by the soldiers, but no casualties have been reported. The fire was still burning this afternoon.

There was further rioting at Lisburn last night between Sinn Feiners and loyalists, resulting in the wreckage of three more establishments in this steadily badly damaged town.

PRINCIPALS FOR PLAY

Old Dominion Ball Club Will Present "Oh, Oh, Cindy" October 6, 7, 8, At Opera House

The program for "Oh, Oh, Cindy" has gone to press, and the rehearsals promise a splendid performance. Miss Louise E. Close, the director for the John B. Rogers Producing Company, has been untiring in her efforts to present a successful show and when the curtain goes up next Wednesday evening, the well trained choruses will prove her wonderful ability as a director.

The leading parts are Cinderella VanAlstyne, or "Cindy" and Terence O'Hooligan, played by Miss Louise Griffith and Mr. A. D. Rhodes, two of the most talented of Alexandria's amateur thespians.

Miss Hilda Schneider will appear as Blanche Blondina, the second lead, and supporting her throughout the play are Briely Clem, H. V. Quigley and Leslie Devers, as Alphonse Verdier, Billy Weston and Rex Lambert, a vaudeville team known as "The Three Bears."

Four attractive show girls of the Follies are Mildred St. Clair, Persis Neilson, Rae Roslyn and Grace Martin, as portrayed by Miss Susie Murphy, Miss Rosa Murphy, Miss Gladys Rogers and Miss Ruth LeHew.

Mr. Allen Roberts will play the part of Stephen Craig, known as "The Prince," Miss Abbie Hoxton will appear as "Lily White." Cinderella's colored maid, and her two faithful attendants will be Friday and Saturday, Mr. Jack Dinwiddie and Mr. Everett James.

The part of "Robinson Crusoe" the legendary hero, will be taken by Dr. John T. Ashton, while Mr. Edward Oliver will take the part of Ferdinand Gotrex, producer of the Follies, and known as "Santa Claus."

Miss Evelyn Howard as Le Crier, has an excellent opportunity to display her elocutionary abilities in this scene. The introduction of this herald idea is both novel and pleasing and is certain to meet with the favor of the audience.

Three messengers who appear in "The Land of Heart's Desire" are Misses Margaret Blunt, Edna Dunlap and Aveline Cunningham.

Two specialties during one of the scenes will be songs by Miss Nina Baker Fulton and Miss Mary Hunt Roberts.

The large supporting chorus will be announced later. The costumes and scenery have arrived and with rehearsals being held daily the curtain will ring up promptly at 7 o'clock Tuesday evening on a performance for children, which will be over by 9:30 to allow the little ones to see the play and yet not be kept up very late. The regular scheduled performance will be Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week.

THE CONGRESSIONAL CONTEST IN OUR DISTRICT.

The activity in registration due to universal suffrage reminds us that besides the election for the presidency, the membership of the National House of Representatives must be determined at the election on the 2nd of November. It will not do for the voters to overlook this Virginia has nine Democratic members of this body and they are fine men; every one, but frankly we do not believe that any district in the U. S. is better represented than ours.

Mr. Moore has been in Congress just about two years and he has forged to a place in the estimate of his fellows that few men reach in a tenure of many years.

Hear what fine words his fellow members say of him:

On September 19th, 1919, at the conclusion of Mr. Moore's first formal speech, the Hon. Claude Kitchen, of North Carolina, one of the Democratic leaders, and chairman of the most important committee of the House, said that the speech of no new member had been received with such a mark of approval as was indicated by the members of the House, and applauding the address.

This speech was the brilliant effort of Mr. Moore on Virginia's part in the adoption of the Constitution of the United States.

Upon the conclusion of Mr. Moore's remarkable address on the soldiers' home, the Hon. S. D. Fess of Ohio, chairman of the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee, addressed the body saying:

"Mr. Chairman, the gentlemen who has just left the floor, Mr. Moore of Virginia, shows that he is a student, that he comprehends cause and effect, and in my judgment has a clear grasp of the National problem, and possesses the courage to speak his convictions."

On May 11th, 1920, in general debate relating to a matter which was advocated by Mr. Moore, namely, that members of Congress should have advance notice of the daily transactions of the House, so that mature and intelligent action might be had thereon, another Republican leader, speaking to the subject, referred to Mr. Moore as "one of the ablest members of the House."

Mr. Moore has been occupying a portion of his valuable time as a member of the House in an effort to apply business principles to the government. This has meant efficiency in administration and economy in expenditure, which of course would lighten the burden of the tax-payer. His work along this line was endorsed by cabinet members and by Mr. Herbert Hoover and Hon. Franklin D. Roosevelt, now Democratic candidate for Vice-President. Some of the great dailies of the country gave very complimentary mention as to the merit of his efforts.

We admire our able representative as a man and as a public servant. His record, private and public, is as an open book and one has but to know it to realize that we, in the Eighth Virginia Congressional District, have a real man at the helm.

Mr. Moore has worked unsparingly in the performance of his public duties. He has at all times been accessible to his constituents and has never failed to accord them courtesy and consideration. In fact, nothing gives him more genuine satisfaction than to do for his fellows. He has constantly in mind the responsibility of doing whatever is possible to make rural life more attractive and profitable and he has labored and will to the end that the agricultural interests, which are of such paramount concern to all his constituents, be fostered and promoted. Mr. Moore is a man of the calibre to make his constituents proud of him, and they are. He will grow in popular favor because the welfare of his people is ever before him. He deals masterfully with big things and yet nothing that concerns a constituent is too small to receive his attention.

The women of the district should register and be in a position to show their appreciation of such a character as R. Walton Moore by voting for his return to Congress. Upon moral issues which have been determined in the State he has been a very tower of strength for the right. His majority should be greater than it has been before.

300 Gallons, 4 Cars and 5 Men Seized in Rum Raid
Danville, Va., Sept. 30.—A raid by ten revenue agents armed with shot-guns and led by Chief Revenue Agent S. R. Brame in Henry County last night resulted in the capture of nearly 300 gallons of liquor, some of which was poured out in the street this morning to a chorus of groans by a large crowd.

The undertaking was the largest ever attempted here and was in the nature of a surprise attack on moonshiners who believed the field agents here to testify in court would not be active. The officers found more than they bargained for and one of the men escaped. Nolen was shot scaling a wire fence. He was effectually hamstrung and could not run. Brought here, ninety shot were taken from his body. He referred the doctor to the government for payment.

Revenue Agent H. B. Crenshaw admits having shot Nolen to prevent his escape.

Cleopas Nolen, a son of Rome, was also arrested in another car which, with its predecessor, crashed into a road obstruction carefully laid near Henry.

Two negroes were caught driving a heavy-laden liquor car and both were arrested. The machine belonged to J. C. Adkins, a local business man. While the officers were searching his car Ralph Howard, of this city, came bowling along. His car, too, was weighted with liquor and he was placed under arrest. This evening four of the five men were indicted. The older Nolen is already under several indictments for handling liquor in an other court and his arrest was considered important.

When the liquor was poured out his morning the runlets were cunced on the pavement and they burst. John Anderson, a negro, scooped up a handful and drank it. A policeman caught him and he was fined $10 in court for drinking in a public place.

Cincinnati Man Heads Legion.

reland, Sept. 30.—Delegates from every part of the United States and many other lands are heading homeward, following adjournment of the second annual convention of the American Legion, which ended its three-day session last night. It has been a busy-making gathering, and the organization, which held the convention at Minneapolis last year, now numbers among its members more than 1,500,000 who saw the American colors in the world war.

F. W. Galbraith, jr., of Cincinnati, was elected national commander to succeed Franklin D'Olier before adjournment. He received 533 votes on the first ballot, 20 short of a majority, and a second roll-call began delegation after delegation swung into the Ohioan, deserting Col. MacNider, of Mason City, and J. F. J. Herbert, of Worcester, Mass., the other candidates.

Cox Says League Will Need Arms Back of Moral Force.

Topeka, Kan., Sept. 30.—Force as an element of the league of nations was discussed yesterday by Gov. Cox in his travels in Kansas and Missouri. "I believe that the moral influence will be sufficient," he declared, but indicated that behind moral force it was necessary to have armed force, and he paralleled the case to the country sheriff, whom he said is seldom called upon to use force to "carry out decrees, but has it, if necessary. The governor also said Col. Roosevelt criticized the Hague tribunal for lack of force.

Pointing out that in 100 years of its existence the Monroe doctrine had never required a shot for its maintenance, Gov. Cox said: "Bear this in mind. First, that matters must be submitted to discussion and arbitration and then if any nation violates it (the league recommendations), they are going to impose the commercial embargo. It is the judgement of men like Elihu Root and Judge Taft that the commercial embargo will be an effective preventive of war. It is the judgment of the most profound students of the whole question that the

Kiss Invitation From Maniculist

Makes Wife Mad

New York, Sept. 30.—Visions of last year keep popping up before me. All the glory of your wonderful self keeps flashing through my mind. I see you now enchanting, fascinating. The picture is too vivid. I want to run toward it, to be held in your arms and smothered with kisses.

This excerpt from a letter, alleged to have been written to her husband by Miss Anna Moscovitz, a pretty manicurist, is offered by Mrs. Dorothy Helprin as evidence that her husband has ceased to love her, in a suit before the Brooklyn Supreme Court for separation from Dr. Benjamin E.

MINES CLOSED

BY NEW STRIKE

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Sept. 30.—Eight thousand miners of the Pennsylvania Coal Company went out on strike today after having been at work two days since the settlement of their original strike lasting ten weeks.

Every colliery of the company in the Pittston district was idle again. The strike was called, at a mass meeting of the men, when they were told by James A. Joyce, a business man of Pittston, who was the important factor in settling the recent strike, that the company had failed to live up to its agreement.

he was quoted as saying. The out-fielder declared he didn't want to "get in on the deal" at first, but the other players at the hotel conference told him it would be easy. He said he had been promised $20,000 but was doubled crossed. Abe Attell and Gandil were the ones he believed guilty of the double-crossing.
Felsch denied that the White Sox had thrown any games this season and said the men implicated in the bribery had felt all season they would be exposed sooner or later. He confirmed the confessions of Gieppie and Jackson made yesterday.

John Heydler, president of the National League, and John McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, today told the jury details of the Lee Magee and Hal Chase cases and also of dropping of Heinie Zimmerman. McGraw was requested to return Tuesday and bring Fred Toney, New York pitcher, and Benny Kauff, outfielder. Heydler was asked to appear again at his convenience after the world series.
McGraw is said to have told the jury that he dropped Hal Chase from his club after President Heydler had told him Magee had confessed that Chase bribed to throw games. He said he had heard of many other gambling activities of Chase's before the Magee case.

Zimmerman was dropped from the New York team, McGraw is said to have told the jury, because information had come to the New York manager that the third baseman of the Cincinnati Reds, Heinie Zimmerman, had been offered $200 by Zimmerman to lose a game deliberately. It is that the jury subpoenaed Toney Kauff to obtain further evidence concerning Zimmerman and Chase. McGraw denied that gambling or throwing had anything to do with the sudden release of Kauff last summer. "But I got rid of Chase and Zimmerman, even though I knew it would seriously injure my team, because I didn't want such men on the club," McGraw also is said to have told the jury that Toney told him he had Hoyle Casts Doubt On Law's Power To Punish Bribed Ball Players.

New York Sept. 30.—State's Attorney Macley Hoyle, of Chicago, who was in this city last night, cast a canopy of doubt over the actions of his assistants and the Cook county grand jury during his absence. He referred to the voting of the indictments in the baseball scandal.

"I am uncertain," he said, "whether any crime has been committed. No indictments have been returned in court. They may have voted, as reported, but an indictment is not an indictment until it has been returned to court."

Mr. Hoyle's position seemed to be: The eight White Sox took money to throw ball games. They did throw the games, according to their own

SHIPS TO OBEY

The action of Great Britain in closing the port of Queenstown to shipping is a matter well within her rights and will meet with no protest from the United States, Secretary of State Colby said yesterday. The order governs British ships as well as those of foreign countries, he said, and therefore no rights are infringed.

"The question of the freedom of the seas does not arise," said the Secretary. "No international rights are involved, and the British government is entirely within its rights as a nation."

A number of protests against the embargo have been received, but the great majority came from sources other than ship owners.

An American liner, the Panhandle State, is now on the way over. The officers and owners of this vessel had been advised before leaving New York of the order of the British government.

The great demand of the hour is for lace waist in the overblouse style, and these are the kind of laces and nets most in demand for this purpose. Of course, they are just as popular for the whole dress. Indeed, this bids fair to be a great lace season.

Host of patterns to select from in ring and spot patterns in many different size spots; small designs on craquelle net and beautiful large designs of floral patterns on Chantilly nets.

The black nets and laces, a yard, from $1.65 to $5.50

VIRGINIA NEWS

Charlottesville.—Convocation day exercises, marking the opening of the ninety-seventh session of the University of Virginia, were held at 11 o'clock today in Cabell Hall. Frank A. Vanderlip, former president of the National City Bank of New York, was the principal speaker.

Winchester.—Marshall David Miller, 55, a division superintendent of the Northern Virginia Power Company, was a guest of honor at a high tea given at Shenandoah Junction, Va., where he and an employee were repairing a transformer. He was a native of Staunton, Va., where his mother, two sisters and a brother live.

Richmond.—W. C. Hall, former State prohibition inspector, charged with the killing of Lawrence D. Hudson and Richmond State Senator, alleged bootleggers, on the Shenandoah Valley Turnpike, about eighteen months ago, will stand trial at the Circuit court convened there for the session. Former State Senator Louis C. Wendenburg, who twice before has defended Hall, is again appearing in both instances, made this announcement this afternoon. A crowded docket is given as the reason for postponement of Hall's hearing.
